"If you don't start from where you are, you will stay where you are."

A blue-tinted, top-down view of a meeting table. Several people are seated around the table, their hands and arms visible as they work. There are multiple laptops open, some displaying charts and graphs. Several spiral-bound notebooks and loose sheets of paper are scattered across the table, some with handwritten notes and diagrams. A coffee cup is also visible. The overall scene suggests a collaborative work environment.

Thank you!
